Diocesan History Book

A diocesan history book has been prepared by one of our priests, Fr. Ty Bazar, which includes parish histories, patron saints and special features unique to our diocese. At present the expected cost of the book is approximately $30. Orders need to be completed by the end of September—with expected delivery by Christmas. Unfortunately no proof is available to review beforehand. The portion on Yoakum and Hochheim is expected to be that which is found in our own parish history book first published at the time of our centennial in 1969 and updated in the 1980s—and also summarized in the Archdiocese of San Antonio history books from 1949 and 1974. Those interested may contact Fr. Ty (361-897-1155) to arrange an order.

CCD Registration Closes

After Mass please return the unit to the cabinet for the next Mass.

Capital Campaign Receptions

This week we will host our Capital Campaign Educational receptions. The first takes place after the Spanish Mass this Sunday. On Wednesday we will have one at 1 P.M. and the other at 7 P.M. For your planning, Bishop Fellhauer will be joining us here at St. Joseph Parish family Center for the Wednesday afternoon (1 P.M.) reception. Different diocesan representatives will be at the other two receptions. [The Sunday (16th) will be primarily in Spanish.] All are welcome and encouraged to attend. The reception will last for approximately an hour and will include presentations and refreshment. A special video will also be viewed, and there will be time for input (questions and comments). Plan on joining in this endeavor to assist us in meeting our goals.
